HOW TO APPLY

More specifically, from 18/02/23 the Organiser will post more content dedicated to the “Shake Your Talent” casting on its Facebook and Instagram pages.

To promote this activity on social media, the three designated “talent hunter” influencers will create and publish content regarding the casting and methods of participation.

In order to apply, recipient Candidates must send, according to the timescale shown above, a photo of their drink accompanied by the recipe in text format directly to the Instagram account @themixingstar in the form of a Direct Message and then post the image on their Instagram profile, tagging it @themixingstar and with the respective Talent Hunter.

The published image must have the following characteristics:

- a) The uploaded photo must show a cocktail, made by the bartender sharing the image, containing one of the following products: Disaronno Originale, Disaronno Velvet or Tia Maria Cold Brew;
- b) The photo uploaded must be original, the result of the creativity of the bartender who will have to display his or her artistic expression and talent through his or her cocktail idea;
- c) The photo must necessarily show the cocktail in the foreground and the respective bottle of product used (failure to comply with this condition will lead to exclusion from the casting). Also admissible in the photo is the bartender who made the cocktail.
- d) In the text of the comment to the post, the user must include the tag of one or more “Talent Hunter” influencers, who in the tease phase will have published content regarding the casting, and the tag of the page @themixingstar
- e) The uploaded photo must show a cocktail that can be prepared quickly, without the use of complex, hard-to-find or homemade ingredients. The cocktail will be prepared and served during the events and must therefore be easily and quickly replicable.

The Bartender, depending on the day on which he/she sent his/her Candidate application in accordance with the above-mentioned procedures, will take part in the respective selection for that period.

Candidate applications can only be submitted from 18/02/2023 until 15/09/2023 in the respective periods defined.

Participation is free of charge except for the normal connection fee, which is simply the tariff charged by the participant’s service provider without any surcharge.

Candidate applications will be assessed by the Organiser who will verify, at its sole discretion, their suitability and congruence with the spirit of the Casting. Candidate applications that are not compliant with the Casting, that are ambiguous or unclear, that are impossible to assess, or that lack the content required for participation (or whose content is incomplete/damaged) will be rejected by the Organiser.

Please note that:

- Candidate applications that meet the above requirements, with particular attention to the correct insertion of the phrase as specified in point b) above, will be taken into consideration;
- Candidate applications for which the phrase as specified in point b) is incorrectly entered will be excluded from the Casting;

- It is mandatory that photos be shared as direct message, accompanied by the cocktail recipe in text format, with the Organiser on their Instagram page; other means of participation will not be accepted;
- Photos must comply with the technical characteristics of the social network used;
- The Organiser reserves the right to exclude photos that infringe the copyrights of third parties, or that do not comply with the proposed subject matter, or that contain content that is defamatory, offensive, pornographic or sexual in nature, discriminatory in any way (including specifically discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, religion and/or political beliefs of individuals or groups) or that promote violence or injury against any living being, or any other content that is offensive, obscene or inappropriate. Photos containing threats or other content intended to intimidate, harass or abuse a person's private life, or that constitute a violation of applicable laws or with content that encourages unlawful behaviour, will also be excluded;
- Candidate applications must be original and no photomontages or photographic manipulations will be allowed;
- The photo must not contain the image of recognisable minors;
- The photo must contain the image of the cocktail and the bottle of the product used to make it. The picture of the bartender who made it is also admissible;
- By submitting a photo, Candidates relinquish any right to it (this right will be attributed to the Organiser) and they will not be able to make any financial claims regarding the photo's possible future use. Content must be copyright-free and will not be returned.
- By sending the photo, the Candidate declares that he/she is the exclusive and legitimate owner of all copyright and usage rights, including economic benefits, of the photo. The Candidate also declares that he/she is responsible for the content of the photo, indemnifying and holding Illva Saronno Holding S.p.A and the companies involved in this initiative harmless from any claims and/or actions by third parties, and the Candidate will be obliged to indemnify Illva Saronno Holding S.p.A against any prejudicial consequences, including any legal expenses, comprising out-of-court costs, that may be incurred as a result of violation of the above. Any non-compliance will be sanctioned with exclusion from the initiative in addition to the request of damages if applicable.
- By submitting the photo, Candidates declare:
 - that they are aware of, and accept, the fact that the images contained in the photo submitted for the purposes of participation in the Casting will be used and published and that the aforementioned photographic contributions will therefore be indiscriminately accessible to the public;

- By submitting the photo, the Candidate authorises the Organiser to publish it on its website and to make it available to the public even after the end of this Casting;
- The connection fee is identical to the rate charged by the participant's service provider without any surcharge;
- The same natural person (whose identity can be verified from the copy of the identity document or the data supplied during validation of the successful outcome of the competition) cannot be selected more than once, even if they are selected with different social accounts. The selection will be confirmed only after the appropriate checks have been performed on the documentation sent, and only the first application, in chronological order, will be accepted. The remaining applications selected referring to this individual will be automatically cancelled;
- A single account can be selected just once during the selections for the three separate participation periods.

Important: If the submission does not comply with the rules in this contest, the candidate will have to participate in subsequent submissions with a different drink than the one already submitted. Conversely, if that application complies with all the points in the "How to Apply" section, the cocktail will be considered valid for subsequent applications.

CHOICE OF CANDIDATES

All Candidate applications meeting the above-mentioned requirements will be assessed by a Technical Jury, which will select the Candidates in compliance with the dates shown in the table and elsewhere in this document.

It should be noted that in the case of being selected and taking part in the event, the selected bartender will be required to perform without pay during the event in which he/she will participate in order to replicate the cocktails identified by the Organiser; failure to perform will entail the need to reimburse travel and accommodation expenses and cause the exclusion from subsequent selections.

It should be noted that the above-mentioned service includes:

- preparation of the drink whose originality led to the selection of the bartender and/or other preparations requested by the Organiser;
- serving said preparations in a manner agreed upon when accepting participation in this activity.

The Candidates will be assessed by a high-level Jury consisting of the Organiser's technicians and will have an odd number of participants. The Organiser reserves the right to identify a number of reserve Candidates to be used to complete the Casting according to the numbers of individuals listed below or to choose fewer Candidates should the applications received not comply with the proposed theme.

Selections will be made as follows:

- 1st selection by 15/04/2023 from all the Candidate applications compliant with the regulations, received between 18/02/23 and 07/04/23: two bartenders will be selected who will each be awarded participation in North America's 50 Best Bars and the chance to replicate their drink on that occasion. Another five reserve Candidates will also be selected.
- 2nd selection by 25/06/2023 from all the Candidate applications compliant with the regulations, received between 15/05/23 and 15/06/23: two bartenders will be selected from the list, each of whom will be awarded participation in Asia's 50 Best Bars and the chance to replicate their drink on that occasion. Another five reserve Candidates will also be selected.
- 3rd selection by 01/10/2023 from all the Candidate applications compliant with the regulations, received between 15/06/23 and 15/09/23: two bartenders will be selected from the list, each of whom will be awarded participation in The World's 50 Best Bars and the chance to replicate their drink on that occasion. Another five reserve Candidates will also be selected.

A total of six bartenders will therefore be selected, along with fifteen reserve Candidates to be considered in the event of the unavailability of the first-ranked pair.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The Jury will assess:

- originality in cocktail creation
- the bartender's creativity and talent

- the bartender's skill in replicating drinks in a context such as the 50 Best Bars events.

A score from 1 to 10 will be assigned.

The selection will take place exclusively online.

Once again, the Jury will make its selection at its sole discretion. The Jury will examine all the Candidate applications and will express an assessment of merit for each of them. However, should none of them, or less than seven (two selected + five reserves), be worthy of selection, the Jury reserves the right not to complete the casting or to select a smaller number of reserve Candidates.

COMMUNICATION AND ACCEPTANCE

Each selected Candidate will be contacted by means of messages on social media with a private message from The Mixing Star profile within 4 days of the selection. The Candidate will have to answer and, within two days of having been contacted, provide their e-mail address in order to receive formal communication and will have to confirm his or her acceptance, as described below.

After the deadline has elapsed without receiving a reply, the first available reserve will be contacted in the same manner as for the selected Candidate.

Important: Receipt of the aforementioned documentation is a mandatory condition for the validation of the selection, since without it, participation cannot be confirmed. The Company also reserves the right to perform the necessary checks to ascertain the validity of participation and the accuracy of the data provided by the participant.

The participant is solely responsible for the management of his or her Facebook/Instagram account and e-mail inbox, with reference specifically to:

- receipt of the message on the social media platform providing notification of success, and of the official communication by e-mail;
- the adoption of security measures to prevent other parties not authorised by the participant from accessing his or her accounts.

 - preparing the drink that led to the bartender's selection and/or other preparations requested by the Organiser;
 - serving the drinks in such a way agreed during the phase of acceptance of participation in this operation.

Failure to comply with these points will necessitate reimbursement of travel and accommodation expenses, and will lead to exclusion from subsequent selections.
